OVERVIEW

Kevin A. Lahm concentrates his practice on insurance coverage with an emphasis on complex litigation. He focuses on directors' and officers' liability and professional liability matters and has extensive experience in the fields of commercial general liability, property/casualty, civil defense, and commercial litigation. Kevin's approach to his work stresses thoroughness and integrity. He endeavors to advise his clients of all risk factors and potential outcomes whether positive or negative in order to assist them in choosing the best course of action.

While in law school, Kevin represented Chicago-Kent for two years in the Phillip C. Jessup International Law Moot Court Competition and graduated with honors. Kevin is also an active member of the Chicago Bar Association and Professional Liability Underwriting Society. Kevin also serves on the firm's pro bono committee.
