

WALKER WILCOX WELCOMES GARRY GLASS AND ANASTASIIA ALLEN

Walker Wilcox Matousek LLP welcomes back Garry Glass as of counsel and Anastasiia Allen as an associate attorney with our Chicago office.

Garry has extensive experience with insurance coverage and general commercial litigation, representing foreign and domestic insurers in coverage disputes and direct litigation in state and federal courts around the country involving defamation claims, class actions and breach of contract. Garry also represents clients in work-outs with commercial lenders. In addition, Garry has developed a unique practice niche in the musical entertainment industry in which he provides legal and business counsel to internationally known performers.

Anastasiia represents clients in various complex civil litigation. Anastasiia's practice is focused on medical malpractice defense but she also represents insurers in coverage litigation and defends municipalities in litigation. Anastasiia is experienced with mediation and all phases of civil litigation in state and federal courts. Anastasiia is admitted in the State of Indiana and recently sat for the Illinois bar. She is the author of When Expert's Testimony Should be Inadmissible published in the Indiana Lawyer, October 2019.
