

WALKER WILCOX PARTNER PROMOTION

Walker Wilcox Matousek LLP is pleased to announce the promotion of Matt Casey to partner.

Matt Casey is an experienced litigation and coverage attorney in the Chicago office. His practice focuses on commercial litigation for corporate and individual clients, both as plaintiff and defense counsel. Matt handles a variety of litigation matters in federal and state courts, including construction disputes, breach of contract, negligence, fraud, torts, unfair competition, copyright infringement, and professional malpractice. Matt has taken bench and jury trials to verdict in Illinois and has extensive experience with arbitrations and mediations. Matt's practice also includes insurance coverage and real estate transactions. Matt grew up in Indiana and lives in Chicago with his wife and daughter.
