

WALKER WILCOX PARTNER PROMOTIONS

Walker Wilcox Matousek LLP is pleased to announce the promotion of Avniel J. Adler and Alla Cherkassky Galati to partner.

Alla's practice focuses on insurance coverage and general litigation. She successfully represents clients both in and out of the court room. Alla's experience includes comprehensive coverage analysis involving professional liability, commercial general liability, and directors and officers liability claims. Alla uses her skills to guide her clients through coverage litigation, appeals, arbitrations, and mediations. Alla was born in Ukraine and has lived in the Chicago area since childhood. She enjoys running and spending time with her husband and their two young boys. Alla works out of Walker Wilcox's Chicago office.

Avniel is an accomplished litigator and insurance coverage attorney in the firm's Houston office. Avniel maintains a diverse practice assisting clients with property claims and related appraisal issues, as well as with CGL, D&O, trucking, and cargo claims. Avniel is licensed in Texas and New York, has trial experience in both states, and has appellate experience in Texas. Outside of work, Avniel enjoys basketball, rowing, and spending time with his wife and son.
